

ANCIENT ARCHRIVALS ON A RAMPAGE!

Before Football - before Rugby - before Robotic Fighting - PIGSKIN WAS FIRST!
No Ball Players, No Running Backs, NO Running End, just Robotic Football & everything... with a little of Barbara's Blood-Rage!

FOOTBRAWL!

In the Dark Ages, the World's Wildest Warriors had a word for "Mind-Blowing, Bone-Crunching, Heart-Stopping Excitement"... "PIGSKIN"! Today, history repeats itself as players flock to rediscover the white-knuckle exhilaration of competing "Head-to-Head"... as well as "Knee-to-Nose" and "Elbow-to-Gut"... with PIGSKIN 621 AD; Bally-Midway's one or two player Footbrawl Fantasy!

Conquer armies of loyal fans with the only video game in history that gives each player control of an ENTIRE ARMY of muscle-bound barbarians! The exclusive TEAM ATTITUDE ADJUSTMENT BUTTON lets a player change strategies on the fly to keep his whole gang working together against the machine or an opponent. In the role of the weapon-wielding Team Captain, the player must continually find new ways to lead his renegade band to victory... because no two matches will ever be alike!

PIGSKIN breaks new ground with an eye-grabbing 3-D backglass PANORAMA... and an exclusive Bally/Midway Tune Cocoon that pours forth the greatest high fidelity sound of the era... thunderous battle cries... hoots, howls and hollers! Spectators are always encouraged to JOIN THE ACTION™ with a buy-in at any time, so the sound that you'll hear most will be the sound of coins dropping into the cash box.

From the first spill into a swamp on a rough and rugged Medieval countryside...

...to the last untimely tumble through a trapdoor in a Dark Ages dungeon...PIGSKIN has plenty of that same irresistible "Sense of Humor" that players have come to expect from a Bally/Midway Legend.

Helpful hints in between periods show players the slick schticks and dirty tricks needed to succeed in battle!
